

Claudio Corbetta

After graduating in Mathematics from Cambridge University in 1994, Corbetta started his career as a Consultant in the Strategic Services Division of Andersen Consulting (now Accenture). In 1998 he joined McKinsey&Co where he worked on several projects mainly in the banking and telecommunications sectors. In 2000 he obtained a Master's degree in Business Administration at INSEAD, France.

Claudio Corbetta joined DADA Group in December 2000 as Director of the newly-conceived SME's Services Business Unit and he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the new Register.it S.p.A. in 2002. At the end of 2009 Claudio Corbetta became Managing Director of Dada.pro business unit, consolidated as an international leader in its markets, after having finalized its international expansion plan managing the acquisitions carried out between 2006 and 2009 and their subsequent integration.

Following the strategic rationalization and the asset portfolio rationalization of the Company, in September 2011 Claudio Corbetta was co-opted by the Board to act as a new Director and appointed as Chief Executive Officer of DADA S.p.A..

Present and past positions

In addition to being Managing Director and CEO of the parent company DADA S.p.A., listed since 2001, Claudio Corbetta is also Managing Director of Register.it S.p.A., Fueps S.r.l., Nominalia Internet S.L. and he is member of the Boards of Clarence S.r.l., Amen Ltd. (Company Secretary), Amen Netherland B.V., Amenworld Servicios Internet Sociedade Unipersonal Lda, Namesco Ltd. (Company Secretary), Namesco Ireland Ltd., Namesco Inc., Poundhost Internet Ltd., Simply Virtual Server Ltd., Simply Transit Ltd.; he is also Sole Administrator of Agence des Medias Numeriques Sas.